1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/31/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hideaki Yasui et al.(JP02002056773A) in view of Noriyuki et al. (JP 04-365349), and Hide (JP 2001-316797), both of record.

Regarding claim 5, Yasui ('773) teaches throughout the text a method for manufacturing plasma display panels (PDPs) comprising: forming a film of MgO on a substrate in an evaporating room, the substrate being held by one of a plurality of substrate holders, the substrate holders comprising a plurality of elements.

Art Unit: 2879

Yasui ('773) does not disclose and repeatedly using the plurality of substrate holders, such that when the MgO film is formed on a substrate, at least one substrate holder in the evaporating room is coated with MgO film from forming the MgO film on the substrate, and at least one holder in the evaporating room comprises elements not coated with said MgO film.

Further regarding claim 5, Noriyuki ('349) teaches in figures 1 and 2 a method of forming film on a substrate (no number), the substrate held by one of a plurality of substrate holders (T), and repeatedly using the plurality of substrate holders to form film on a substrate, at least one substrate holder is coated with film from forming the film on the substrate, for the purpose of ease of maintenance of the carriers.

Further regarding claim 5, Hide ('797) teaches in paragraph 28 a method of making a film comprised of, in part, shields (1 la, 1 lb) which prevent film from being formed on the substrate for the purpose of improving the ease of maintenance of the carriers.

Hence it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the shields of Hide and the manufacturing steps of Noriyuki in the manufacturing steps of Yasui for the purpose of improving the ease of maintenance of the carriers.
